

Paul Lucas

484 W 43 ST APT #25F • NEW YORK, NY 10036
646.286.3625 • prez@paullucasproductions.com

EXPERIENCE

1999-present

Paul Lucas Productions, LLC. New York, New York
President

Produce, general manage, and tour full-scale productions, staged readings, events, and performance workshops.

Oversaw varying aspects of the following productions, readings, and workshops from planning stages to final production. Responsibilities included hiring and supervision of staff, casting, overseeing press and marketing, creating and overseeing of all budgets, rental of rehearsal space and venues, equipment rental, creation of program, union negotiations, and general management for the following productions and events:

Bouffon Glass Menajoree*, co-Producer/Press and Tour Representative
Dublin Fringe Festival; September 2008

- Bouffon clown parody of Tennessee Williams's classic southern gothic masterpiece produced in association with the Dublin Fringe Festival.

Red Bastard*, co-Producer/Press and Tour Representative
Dublin Fringe Festival; September 2008

- Solo bouffon show by award-winning Eric Davis (aka Red Bastard) at the Bosco Tent in the Spiegelgarten.

Dai (Enough)*, co-Producer/Press Representative

The Pleasance, Edinburgh Festival Fringe; August 2007

- Solo play set in a café in Tel Aviv just before a suicide bombing. Written and performed by Iris Bahr. After this Drama Desk Award nominated play to completely sold out houses in Edinburgh, it returned to off-Broadway for an encore engagement and received a Lucille Lortel Award. Upcoming engagements include Germany, the UK, Israel, and a US tour.

A Conversation With Edith Head*, co-Producer/Press Representative
The Pleasance, Edinburgh Festival Fringe; August 2007

- Solo bio play about the world's most famous costume designer. Following a sold out run in Edinburgh, this co-production with Invisible Theatre Company of Arizona continues a world tour, including a month-long London run.

Woody Sez*, co-Producer/Press Representative

The Pleasance, Edinburgh Festival Fringe; August 2007

UK & German Tour, May/June 2008

- This musical tribute to American folk legend Woody Guthrie enjoyed rave reviews in Edinburgh and is currently on a six week tour of the UK and Germany. Featuring Broadway veteran David Lutken and a trio of acotr/musicians from across America, this crowd-pleasing show received an Argus Angel Award in Brghto and has recently been released on CD.

Floating*, Producer/Press and Marketing Representative

Barrow Street Theatre, New York, NY; February/March 2007

- Produced the US premiere of the Total Theatre Award-winning play in association with Cambridge UK-based Hoipolloi Theatre Company for a sold out run during Wales Week 2007. Sponsored by Arts Council England and the Welsh Assembly.

What I Heard About Iraq*, co-Producer/Press Representative

The Pleasance, Edinburgh Festival Fringe; August 2006

- Verbatim play, adapted for the stage by Simon Levy from Eliot Weinberger's controversial London Review of Books article. Received Scotsman Fringe First Award and continued on to a seven week UK tour and a licensing deal in Australia where the production received an Advertiser Weekly Fringe First Award.

The Be(a)st of Taylor Mac, Producer/Manager/Touring and Press Representative
The Underbelly, Edinburgh Festival Fringe; August 2006

International Tour, 2006 - 2008

- Solo show featuring political drag performance artist and musician Taylor Mac. Received Herald Angel Award and continues to tour the US, UK, Australia, Sweden, and Ireland, garnering multiple other awards.

When Aunt Daphne Went Nude, Producer/General Manager

The Mint Theatre, New York, NY; October/November 2004

- British drawing room comedy written by Miriam Jensen Hendrix and starring Broadway veterans Lucille Patton, and Patricia Hodges. Production was taped for Lincoln Center Library for the Performing Arts.

Kafka's The Metamorphosis, Promoter

Prague Fringe Festival & Edinburgh International Fringe Festival, June & August 2004

UK and German Tour, May/June, 2005

- Physical theatre and film adaptation of the Kafka novel, presented at two major international fringe festivals. Secured venues, oversaw contracts, press, marketing, and advertising. Exclusive liaison with all press and promoters.

that Woman: Rebecca West Remembers, Producer/General Manager

manhattantheatresource, New York, NY, March 2004, Greenwich Arts Council, Greenwich, CT; October 2004; Netherlands Tour, February 2005

- Solo show written by Carl Rollyson, Helen Macleod, and Anne Bobby. Featuring Ms Bobby (The Real Thing, Born on the Fourth of July). Based on the life of famed British author Rebecca West. An excerpt of the play was reprinted in the New York Times. The tour of the Netherlands was co-produced by Xaviera Hollander (The Happy Hooker).

Son of Drakula, Co-Producer

Dance Theater Workshop. New York, NY; October/November 2002

- One-man show by OBIE Award winning writer/performer David Drake (The Night Larry Kramer Kissed Me). Subsequent productions played in San Francisco, Anchorage, and Zagreb (Croatia).

TimeSlips, Producer/General Manager

HERE Performing Arts Center. New York, NY; October/November 2001

- Critically-acclaimed play at the center of a project inspired by stories created by adults living with dementia that incorporated play, art exhibit, and training workshops. Formed teams for overall project as well as play. Author has been awarded $450K grant for PBS documentary on aging.

50 Minutes with Harriet & Phillis, Producer

The Cherry Lane Alternative. New York, NY; February 2001

- Two-woman show, written and performed by Pulitzer Prize-winning New York Times cultural critic Margo Jefferson and Choreographer/Performer Francesca Harper. Originally developed in Cambridge, Mass., under the auspices of Anna Deveare Smith.

Nosferatu, Producer/General Manager

HERE Performing Arts Center. New York, NY; May/June 2000

- Sold-out adaptation of the silent classic film, featuring 23 actors, including Klaus Kinski's son Nikolai in the title role. The production has gone on to Telluride, CO and a three-city tour of India.

Flyer, Producer

Six Figures Theatre Company. New York, New York; October 1999

- 15 character show, featuring Tandy Cronyn, that told the story of the 13 women who tried to enter NASA's Astronaut Training Program in the early 1960s. Published by Samuel French.

Messages for Gary, Producer/General Manager

New York International Fringe Festival. New York, New York; August 1999

- 51 character play about the life and death of gay activist Gary Lucek, as told entirely through his answering machine tapes. Featured eight actors, including John "LYPSINKA" Epperson and Alex McCord (Real Housewives of New York).

2006

Aurora Nova Venue. Edinburgh Festival Fringe. Edinburgh, Scotland
Director, Public Relations and Marketing

Supervised a staff of three to oversee all press and marketing efforts for the most prestigious physical theatre venue at the world's largest international arts event, with over 1.5 million tickets sold annually.

- Reviewed, edited, compiled, advertising and promotional materials, and tracked media coverage for 14 separate productions from six countries during the venue's most-ambitious and financially successful season to date.
- Press Liaison between all media and over 150 performers and musicians. Coverage included major newspaper and magazine features, television appearances, and five major festival awards.

2002 &
2005

Southside Venue. Edinburgh Int'l Fringe Festival. Edinburgh, Scotland
Public Relations and Marketing Director

Supervised a staff of three to oversee all press and marketing efforts for one of the largest venues at the world's largest and most famous international arts event, with over 1.5 million tickets sold annually.

- Reviewed, edited, compiled, advertising and promotional materials, and tracked media coverage for 21 separate productions from six countries.
- Press Liaison between all media and over 250 performers and musicians.
- Initiated and coordinated networking events for performers, producers, and directors. Created new marketing initiatives including one that received an award for best new initiative on the Fringe.

2003

Williamstown Theatre Festival. Williamstown, MA
Director of Public Relations and Marketing

Oversaw all aspects of public relations, marketing, and advertising for the Tony Award-winning Williamstown Theatre Festival.

- Mounted highly-successful publicity campaign for a season including five main stage shows, four second stage shows, four cabaret shows, a new reading series, a free theatre program, a youth education program, and numerous special events. Secured an enormous amount of coverage locally, in the NYC, Boston, and Albany areas, on television, and online.
- Created and oversaw print and radio advertising schedule for all shows. Supervised creation of all print ads. Forged new trade arrangements with other arts organizations.
- Primary contact with all media and liaison with all performers, directors, musicians, authors, and management.
- Initiated several new programs, including a campaign to collect 3,000 customer e-mail addresses and the creation of a weekly e-mail newsletter.
- Concentrated on garnering press attention for many sold out performances, including the second stage and the cabaret in order to create strong institutional visibility in preparation for the 50th Anniversary of the theatre and the opening of two new larger theatres in 2005.

2002 -
2003

John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Washington, DC Management Fellow, Vilar Institute

Awarded Arts Management Fellowship from a pool of over 200 candidates from 50 countries. The arts management residency at the world's largest performing arts presenting organization included daily management seminars in strategic planning, development, marketing, and finance conducted by President (Michael Kaiser) and Vice Presidents of the Center. Additional professional development seminars included accessibility, artistic programming, legal issues, negotiations, unions, arts education, media relations, and board relations. The Kennedy Center presents and produces over 3,000 performances yearly, with an annual budget of $125MM. Contributed to the following areas and projects during my tenure:

- Youth and Family Programming (YFP) - Created production budgets for educational programming (Annual budget $2.5MM). Adapted and drafted customizable boilerplate contracts for YFPs Commissioning, Author, and Licensing Agreements.
- Public Relations, Millennium Stage (MS) - Wrote press releases, created monthly performance calendars for internal and external distribution, and was primary contact with press for MS, part of the Performing Arts for Everyone initiative offering free entertainment 365 days/year.
- Grants and Sponsorship Fundraising for the $1.5MM French Festival. Created preliminary fundraising plan for overall and individual event sponsorship. Identified and cultivated relationships with major corporations
- Educational Programs Coordinator/Public Relations for National Symphony Orchestra's two week North Dakota residency.

1995-
2002

Paul Szilard Productions, Inc. New York, New York
Senior Associate

International booking agent and presenter for major dance companies and representative for the rights to numerous ballets.

- Negotiated with International Promoters, Presenters, and Festivals, for appearances by Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater (the world's most widely toured dance company), Universal Ballet of Korea, and American Ballet Theatre.
- Prepared and drafted approximately $1MM in contracts annually.
- Calculated and distributed all funds to dance companies, agents, and choreographers.
- Interviewed, hired and oversaw Public Relations and Marketing agencies for Universal Ballet Company's appearances in London, Los Angeles, Washington, DC, and New York City and Madrid's Ballet Victor Ullate in New York City and Miami.

1992 -
1995

American Cabaret Theatre/ Ligeti Artist Management. New York, NY.
General Manager/ Assistant to the Producer

Off-Broadway Theatre and touring production company specializing in cabaret performers.

- General Managed two off-Broadway productions.
- Oversaw staff of six, wrote and negotiated contracts for all performers.
- Designed promotional materials, placed advertisements, and company managed productions.
- Promoted and booked cabaret artists and revues throughout the United States.

1991

Gatchell & Neufeld. New York, New York Office Manager - Broadway General Management Company.

Established Broadway, off-Broadway, and touring General Management Company.

- Oversaw daily operations of 12 person office.
- Managed 15 bank accounts. Assisted with investor distributions for all shows.
- Assisted Mr. Gatchell & Mr. Neufeld on Broadway premieres of La Bete, And the World Goes 'Round, and Crazy For You.

1989 -
1990

Creative Faires. New York, New York.

Public Relations/ Assistant to the Producers.

Producer of the New York Renaissance Festival, with over 500 employees and 250,000 visitors annually.

- Primary contact for cable television and newspapers.
- Coordinated interviews and coverage
- Wrote press releases, performer profiles, articles for press kit and program.
- Helped plan and organize special events with over 75 performers.
- On-site assistant to producers, overseeing 200 craftspeople, planning logistics, and selling ad space in festival program.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in English Literature, Magna Cum Laude.
Fairleigh Dickinson University, Teaneck, New Jersey

Commercial Producing Intensive (14 weeks)
Commercial Theatre Institute, New York, NY

Introduction to Screenwriting
Gotham Writers Workshop, New York, NY

Arts Administration Fellowship (One Year)
Kennedy Center, Washington, DC

AWARDS & GRANTS

First annual scholarship to the Commercial Theatre Institute, New York City 2001

Vilar Fellowship in Arts Administration, The Kennedy Center, Washington, DC 2002/3

Writing Residency, Dorset Writer's Colony, Dorset, VT 2004, 2005, and 2008

Francis Alexander Foundation Grant for Screenwriting 2006, 2007, and 2008

The Pirret Family Foundation 2006, 2007, and 2008

The Lucky Star Foundation 2006 and 2007

Three Weeks Award for Best New Initiative on the Fringe 2005

Fringe First Award (Edinburgh), What Heard About Iraq 2006

Herald Angel Award (Edinburgh), Taylor Mac 2006

Argus Angel Award (Brighton), Taylor Mac 2007

Latest 7 Award (Brighton), Taylor Mac 2007

Best of Brighton Review Award, Taylor Mac 2007

Argus Angel Award (Brighton), Woody Sez 2008

OTHER

Past and current judge for the Adelaide Festival Fringe, the Holden Street Theatres Award, and member of the 2008 Selection Committee for the International Exchange Department of the Korean Arts Management Service. Frequent expert panelist on the Edinburgh Festival Fringe throughout the US, Australia, and the UK.